Summer Course in Islam and Interfaith Relations

9 - 22 May 2011

Henry Martyn Institute:
International Centre for Research,
Interfaith Relations and Reconciliation

Henry Martyn Institute (HMI) is an ecumenical Christian organization dedicated to the objective study and teaching of Islam, the promotion of interfaith dialogue and reconciliation

Summer Course Description and Objective:

The Summer Course in Islam and Interfaith Relations — a long-standing annual programme — is an intensive two week residential course. The course gives the participants an understanding of Islam, its practices, history, philosophy and theology. It also provides a time to examine and deepen the knowledge of one's own faith and the meaning of encounter/relationship between people of different faiths. Another objective is the promotion of peace between people of different religious traditions. The Summer Course is a wonderful opportunity to get to know about various study programmes, activities and projects at HMI.

Who May Attend:

The course is open to approximately 35 participants.

- People of all faiths
- Religious and secular college students
- Religious and community leaders

Course Work:

The participants will follow an intensive two-week programme consisting of:

- Lectures, presentations
- Group discussions, role plays and practical dialogue sessions
- Readings, videos, and visits to local religious places
- Medium of instruction is English
- Upon successful completion of the course each participant will receive a HMI certificate

Highlights:

- Spacious and eco-friendly campus
- Interfaith Devotion
- Teaching by an experienced faculty
- Sharing and learning experiences with diverse participants
- Exposure visits and cultural evenings
- Exciting exposure to Urdu and Arabic languages
